

2010 Skagit Human Rights Festival Presents

SKAGIT HUMAN RIGHTS FESTIVAL

Web - Cam

7th ANNUAL

Are Our Perceptions Driven by the Media?

● At the Lincoln Theatre

film, The Other Side of Immigration - Sunday, March 14th 3pm, Tickets $10

This 2009 film provides audiences a fresh perspective on undocumented Mexican immigration and creative proposals for managing the phenomenon more effectively. Presented by the Skagit Immigrant Rights Council

● At SVC's Phillip Tarro Theatre (by donation)

War and Peace - Friday, March 19th 7pm

This evening will focus on peacemaking efforts around the world and here at home, featuring the short documentary on Building a Nonviolent Peaceforce and the 2009 documentary Rethink Afghanistan, from director Robert Greenwald.

Health as a Societal Right: Is Capitalism Killing Us? speaker Stephen Bezruchka MD - Friday March 26th 7pm

Dr. Stephen Bezruchka, ER physician and professor of Population Health Studies at the University of Washington, describes how and why social and economic inequity negatively impacts the health of people in that society. Reducing the gap between the rich and the poor, and prioritizing care in early childhood would improve our overall health."

ppplanet.org
skagithrf@gmail.com

● At SVC's Phillip Tarro Theatre (by donation)

Housing as a Human Right - Friday, March 5th 7pm

The 2009 film First Earth, Uncompromising Ecological Architecture explores the reasons why we need to think differently about house and home, for material and spiritual reasons, and stop seeing them as status symbols or investment. Every human being has the right to safe, affordable shelter.

● Natural Building Workshop - Saturday, March 6th 9am-2pm Room 309, Skagit Valley Coop

This workshop focuses on how our community can create healthy, affordable housing, including a hands-on demonstration of ancient building processes that can be done by most people today. Lunch will be provided for a $5 donation, or feel free to bring your own! Presented by the Natural Building Network

● At the Lincoln Theatre

film, Hannah Free - Sunday, March 7th 3pm, Tickets $10

Sharon Gless, (Burn Notice, Queer as Folk, Cagney & Lacey) stars in the passionate lesbian drama Hannah Free, a new film about a lifelong love affair between an independent spirit and the woman she calls home. Presented by the HRF committee, Skagit PFLAG, PRIDE, and the Lincoln Theatre

Genocide in Our Time: Why Darfur Matters, speaker James Waller PhD. - Friday, March 12th 7pm

As global citizens, it is imperative to recognize that genocide continues to occur in the twenty-first century. This presentation explores the ways the 2003 genocide in Darfur matters in a globalized world and how we, as citizens, can respond to shape political will and impact public policy. Made possible by an "Inquiring Minds" grant from Humanities Washington

